

Title: $3 Rainbow

Verse 1: It's early morning city's yawning
Sleep didn't come easily last night
Look from my window there's no rainbow
Just faded colours into black and white

Bridge 1: They say that rain is due today and the wind is from the west
It's blowing in a brand new day hope it's better than the rest

But I'm telling you now

Chorus: There's no such thing as lousy weather
Just the damn wrong clothes
So I'll get myself an umbrella
And shelter from this storm
Get myself and my mind together and
I will clearly see that
Three-dollar rainbow and a two-bit dream
Was all you left for me

Verse 2: Yes I've been waiting anticipating
Caught in the web of your deceit
I'm just another forbidden lover
Forbidden fruit that tastes so sweet

Bridge 2: I'll take a walk to our café sit and talk to the pouring rain
My memories will fade someday but for now I feel the pain

But I'm telling you now

Chorus: Repeat

Middle: Tell me when did you discover forbidden fruit can be bitter sweet
Now you're moving on to give yourself space

But I'm telling you now

Chorus: Repeat & End
