

Title: $20 Dancer

Intro: She was a twenty-dollar dancer
Said she'd got the answer
Who you trying to fool yourself or me
Dancing the sadness of an unfinished symphony

Chorus: She's given up on ordinary
Looking for extraordinary
She won't stop for anybody
Meet the girl with the dancing feet
Writing her own symphony
Looking for that melody
She won't stop for anybody
So gentlemen give up your seat
For the girl with the dancing feet

Verse 1: Took centre stage in a disco pub
Sang rock and roll in a London club
Waited tables in an all-night bar
Even drove a taxi car
Anything to make ends meet
Meet the girl with the dancing feet

Chorus: Repeat

Middle: She was a twenty-dollar dancer guess she found the answer
Now she sings the blues down in New Orleans
Last time I saw her she was looking older
Asked her where she'd been and what she'd seen

Verse 2: She took some time out in burlesque
Proved to them she was the best
Modelled clothes for D&G
She was the face you had to see
Took the lead in a Broadway show
And so much more that we don't know

Chorus: Repeat
